DEDICATION

We, the Seniors of Arcola High School, Class of '59, dedicate this Torch to Mr. Dunn. Having been with us for four years, Mr. Dunn has shown his ability as a teacher, a class advisor, and a friend to all. He has been a wonderful example to all of us and his school spirit is unsurpassed. We feel he is entirely deserving of this distinction.

Mr. Dunn, the Class of '59 again wishes to express their sincerest thanks for all you have done for us. We wish you all the happiness in the world in the future.

Sincerely,
The Senior Class

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

George W. Cecil once said, "On the plains of hesitation bleach the bones of countless millions who at the dawn of victory sat down to rest and, resting, died."

May it be said that this was not true of you.

The very fact that you desire to have a school annual helps to make this statement true.

The time spent in high school has been used for studying, playing, and working together. You have used your gifts of lively minds, physical vigor, and active curiosity in these experiences.

May you look back and be able to say: I was able to see a forest instead of only trees. While you are now reading this, may you be determined to continue through life to always attempt to see the forest. By doing so, your efforts will be toward the positive things of life.

Congratulations to the "Torch" staff on this year's production.

Clyde Browning

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

To this year's graduating class I wish to offer my congratulations. You have had many notable achievements during your four years in Arcola High School and you have left a fine example for our underclassmen to follow.

It is my hope that you will carry the same enthusiasm, initiative, and drive into your vocations that you demonstrated while you were students.

May this Annual serve to remind you in later years of the many worthwhile experiences and activities you enjoyed while attending school in Arcola.

THE SCIENCE AWARD

This annual Award--a handsome bronze medal--is given at graduation to the senior student who achieves the highest scholastic standing in science subjects. It is presented in almost 7,000 schools. Since its introduction in 1933, there have been 125,000 winners; and a substantial percentage have been encouraged by the Award to follow scientific careers.

John R. Wood

Bob Vyverberg

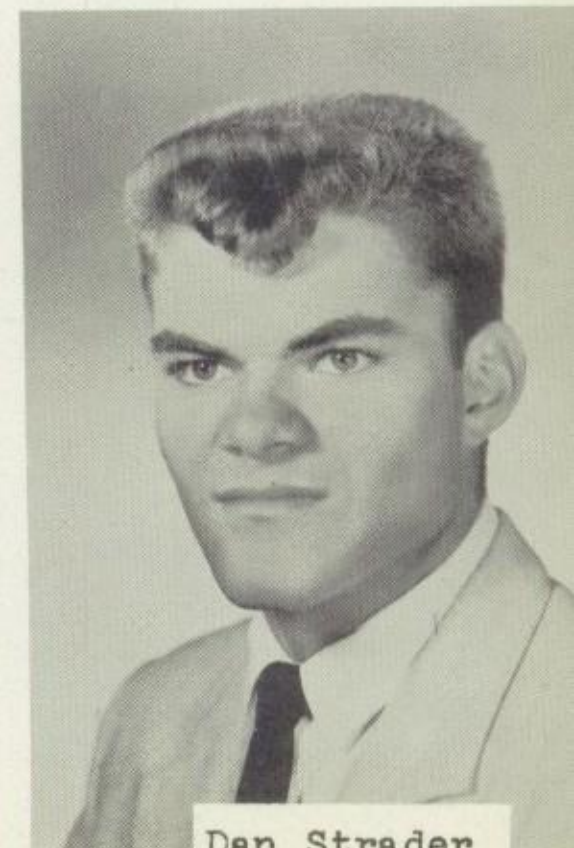

THE ARION AWARD

Each year the Arcola Band Boosters Club awards to a Senior in the Band the National Arion Foundation Award. This award is based on the following qualifications and the student is chosen by the members of the Band and faculty.

1. Better than average scholastic standing
2. Co-operation over and above normal duties
3. Attendance
4. Ambition
5. Diligence
6. Inspiration to others
7. Personal habits
8. Qualified to carry on the best tradition of the school.

THE AGRICULTURE AWARD

Each year the DeKalb Agriculture Association awards a medal, a certificate, and a plaque with the student's name engraved on it to the most outstanding senior Ag student. This is based on all four years of his Agriculture Course.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the wise, lovable, attractive, beautiful, harmless, competent, companionable, courageous, truthful, successful, and the most intellectual Senior Class ever, cellmates of Arcola High School, County of Douglas, State of Illinois, do hereby make, publish, and declare this our last will and testament. Being of clean minds and bodies and always thinking of the best things in life, to our respective heirs, faculty, and certain unfortunate members of the student body, we bequeath all property and rights herein designated.

I, Sue Anderson, will my ability to get along with boys to Madonna Mattingly.

I, Art Beazley, will my hairy legs to Eddie Malray.

I, Bobbie Biggs, will my hair to Sue Vandever.

I, Jim Binford, will my club to anybody that will use it on Jerry Dowell.

I, Larry Bowers, will my quiet ways to "Russian Ray".

I, Charlotte Buntin, will my ability to get engaged to Sandy Cletcher.

I, Gaythel Burgess, will my smile to Miss Whitson.

I, Jan Carlberg, will my polite and thoughtful ways to everyone.

I, Barbara Carroll, will my ability to cut my hand on a can (beer) to anyone who wants it.

I, Wayne Cothron, will my wrenches, bolts, hammers, etc. to Mr. Reed.

a
I, Bob Cox, will my ability to "foul out" to Joe Monahan.

I, Jim Cox, will my ability to go steady to Jack Shaffer.

I, Tom Cox, will my ability to get picked up by "cops" to Bob Coombes.

I, Jerry Dowell, will my ability to be a "ham" to anyone.

I, David Ellison, will my ability to use pliers instead of tweezers to Carl Cloyd.

I, Shirley Fletcher, will my Freshmen boys to Janet Wells.

I, Mary Gooch, will my way with teachers to Phil Anderson.

I, Joyce Good, will my art ability to Miss Scott.

I, Gery Gross, will my driving ability to Sterling Moss.

I, Larry Guyot, will my ability to get picked up
"cops" after the Tuscola game to Harry Bright.

I, Ed Hein, will my ability to "knock out" girls to Ronnie Spaulding.

I, Oretta Hudson, will "Sammie" to anyone who will take him.

I, Fari Idleman, will my boys to my sister, Janet.

I, Carolyn Kluesner, will my brains to Gery Thomas.

I, Glen Little, will my motorcycle to Neal Allen.

I, Jerry Mallady, will my ability to crush bones to Terry Gee.

I, Karen Morris, will my red hair to George Vandever.

I, Joan Murphy, will my temper to Kate Hood.

I, Dennis Myers, will my manly physique to Coach Atterberry.

I, Jack Phillips, will my bottles and cans to Charley Reed.

I, Max Shaw, will nothing and take Kathleen with me.

I, Dorothy Sitz, will my rough ways to Benita Bushu.

I, Pat Snively, will my ability to run laps around the gym to any Junior Girl.

I, Charles Stewart, will my ability to get expelled
and then go back in to George Vandever.

I, Danny Strader, will my muscles to Joe Bill McCoy.

I, Kathleen Thomas, will my cooking ability to Mrs.
Gray.

I, Mary Ann Thompson, will my working habits to Barbara
Good.

I, Bob Vyverberg, will my ability to get along with "Happy Harold" to Roger Shields.

I, Larry Weller, will my "catty" ways and female attraction to Gary Howery.

I, John Wood, will my "hot Chevie" to Paul McNary.

I, David Wright, will my stop signs to Miss Scott.

I, John Young, will my hair to Joe McCoy, the janitor.

The foregoing Last Will and Testament was signed, sealed, and published by the above-named Senior Class, in the presence of witnesses, this twenty-sixth day of December, the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and fifty-eight.

C L A S S P O E M

Sue Anderson is a black-haired beauty,
Who goes with a boy from Villa Grove.
Whenever asked she does her duty,
She's quite a gal we all know.

Art Beazley's sure to succeed in life,
Because he is so wise.
To the U. of I. next year he'll go.
He'll reach his goal, we all know.

In football he whizzed right through the line,
Because he is so small and fast.
In school he's bashful most of the time,
But when Jim Binford talks, everyone laughs.

Larry Bowers is a real gone lad,
When it comes to cars he's not half bad.
You see he drives a brown "Chevie."
With him any girl would love to be.

There is a girl that we all know,
Who's engaged to a boy from Villa Grove.
Charlotte Buntin's not worried you see,
A pretty wife she soon will be.

Gay's friendly, hep, and full of pep.
She has no worries as of yet.
We're sure she'll lead a happy life,
That Burgess girl will do alright.

To Chicago every summer she goes;
A good job waits she well knows.
Jan Carlberg likes to travel too,
But anywhere she's a friend to you.

Barbara Carroll is a pretty lass,
Who is always seen with Pat.
In school she is so very neat,
And as a friend she can't be beat.

Wayne Cothron's quite a mechanic,
Who loves to work on rods.
In class, he is a panic
Which makes the teachers nod.

A turkey-raiser is John Young,
And a football player, too.
A bright future's sure to come
For John, we think, don't you?

He gives Miss Scott a pretty rough time
In American History, you see.
But David has an intelligent mind,
This Wright boy's sure to succeed.

John R. Wood is our treasurer,
And makes our money last.
He spends it in his leisure,
We hope it's for the class.

Jerry Dowell is a likable guy.
At Mattoon he's often seen.
Always able and willing to try
He's never off his beam.

Football is his life.
A coach he wants to be.
Goat was mentioned on All State
As a leading athlete.

Joyce Good is a teacher's joy,
Because she is so smart.
Her future is all planned you see,
A secretary she wants to be.

Dave Ellison a farmer may be;
As for a mate, we'll wait and see.
He's always a riot in our class,
But we're sure that he will pass.

Ed Hein, another star of sports,
Of several girls there are reports.
In studies, he's a smart one too.
To him a big success is due.

Gery Gross is a bashful lad,
Seldom seen when he's mad.
A girl from Tuscola he does like.
We tease him a lot, but it's not spite.

Always seen with Tom,
He drives a "Chevie" bomb.
Dennis Meyers is quite a riot;
And the teachers don't seem to like it.

Carol Kluesner is a wonderful kid.
Excellent work in the Torch she did.
As a class-mate she is swell,
And in her studies, she does well.

The cops all know Tom Cox
In all the towns nearby.
Those cowboy boots must do some good
The way he makes that "Chevie" fly.

Oretta Hudson is a lass with charm.
She never does any harm.
She is well-liked by everyone.
As for her enemies, there are none.

Mary Gooch is a talkative lass,
Who is well-liked by her class.
A member of the Torch Staff,
She's always good for a laugh.

Pat Snively is slender and tall,
And always full of pep.
When she talks she is a ball,
This gal is really hep.

Bobbie Biggs was our Homecoming Queen.
She's pretty, sweet, and her personality's keen.
Cheerleader, too, she likes to yell;
We all think she is really swell.

Jerry Mallady is quite the winker.
He's always using his right blinker.
But if it weren't for his friendly face,
High School would be a pretty dull place.

Dorothy Sitz has got her man,
She doesn't have to hurry.
A ring on her finger proves she can,
Live without a worry.

Larry Weller's quite a guy,
Who loves all the sports.
But when it comes to girls he's shy,
None of them he courts.

A friendly gal named Joan
To all she is well-known.
Although she has quite a temper,
She is so nice, we can't resent her.

We all know that Jack
Has got a secret "knack"
That makes him tops with all the kids.
He's so smart that he doesn't have to dig,
For grades, that is.

A girl with lots of charm,
She never does any harm
She is known for her pretty, red hair;
To Karen Morris, no one can compare.

Kathy Thomas is a gal,
Who's always with Max seen.
A quiet, shy, and bashful pal,
She's never ever mean.

Co-captain of our football team,
We're sure you know just who we mean.
A guy that's got personality plus,
Danny Strader is tops with us.

To us his name is "Stu";
To you his name is Charles;
He peps us up when we are blue,
Because he's just Charley.

Faribell Idleman is quite a girl
She keeps the boys all in a whirl.
With her talent and pretty face,
She's sure to really go some place.

Shirley Fletcher is shy.
She couldn't harm a fly.
She never gets mad
And never is sad.

In sports there is a star,
Who's sure to go real far.
He was named on "All-Okaw",
Bob Cox sure knows his football.

Max Shaw is a quiet guy,
Kind of bashful and shy.
For our class he is a worker,
This guy isn't a shirker.

Although he's shy and quiet,
He often is a riot.
Jim Cox is seldom heard or seen,
But when he is, he's really keen.

When called upon to help,
Or just to give advice,
Mary Thompson's on hand
And usually knows what's right.

A bachelor, Glen Little, wants to be.
He swears he will
By sun and sea.

Bob Vyverberg is sure to go far,
Because he has what it takes:
Good looks, talent, and a desire.
A fine musician Bob will make.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

It is the year 1984 and the Class of '59 is holding its twenty-fifth class reunion. The reunion is held on a plantation down in South America. The plantation is operated by "Smiley" Phillips, a nuclear reactor engineer, and Dave Wright, the builder of the famous Rite Racing Rod.

The serenity of the jungle is suddenly broken by the sound of an airplane crashing and the great "Crash" Gross arrives.

Suddenly there is the beating sound of bongos as "Baldy" Beazley, the bongo beater, announces the arrival of the fabulous showgirl and movie star, Fari Idleman, closely followed by her manager, Winky Mallady.

There is the roar of hot mufflers as Jerry "Mattoon" Dowell and Tig "Oakland" Cox zoom in just back from the Mexican Road Race.

The party is about to start as Glen Little and Dennis Myers come in on their "Harleys" bringing "Guzzling Goat" Guyot with some of his home brewed Jungle Joy Juice.

Suddenly a school bus arrives and Dot Sitz arrives with her friend, Mary Ann Thompson, and their forty-three kids.

The party is going good with entertainment being supplied by "J. R." Wood D.D.S., S.O.B., Ph.D., a jungle witch doctor.

All the classmates are here even Miss Scott came with her permanent assistants "Big Jim" Cox and Mary Gooch.

Over in the corner, Wayne Cothron and "Elford" Ellison, owners of a chain of gas stations talk shop while "Makeout" Bowers, a building contractor, tries to sell "Filthy John" Young a hundred new turkey houses for his turkey farm.

Suddenly there is an ape call as "Tarzan" Weller swings down with his harem of girls, Shirley Fletcher and Sue Anderson.

Joyce Good, a successful commercial artist, quietly talks with Carolyn Kluesner, secretary to Unfortunately, the great star of basketball, football, and girls, Bob Cox, couldn't be here.

Max and Kathleen Shaw are down here in South America and were happy to come to the reunion. Max and Kathy are down here on their second honeymoon which they won as the Most Compatable Couple, a contest sponsored by Danny Strader, a rich farmer who is down here with his personal secretary, "Red" Murphy.

Over in the corner is a group of people carefully discussing sports and the famous stars of football. But Miss Whitson, Charlotte Buntin, and Oretta Hudson are carefully eyeing "Swivel Hips" Binford, a professional football player for Notre Dame.

Much commotion is caused by Ed Hein, our high school Romeo now a test pilot for the Burgess-Morris Lipstick Corporation. He tests the quality and taste of their smear-proof lipstick. Ed is carefully guarded by his two employers to protect him from all the women.

Slowly a big, black car pulls up and the brains of the Chicago Syndicate carefully step out. Barbara Carroll, Pat Snively, Janet Carlberg, and Bobbie Biggs are the brains of the beautiful but deadly crime syndicate in Chicago.

The evening comes to a perfect end as all the members of the class of '59 enjoy eating their favorite meal consisting of "Stewed Sitter" and Broiled Browning"

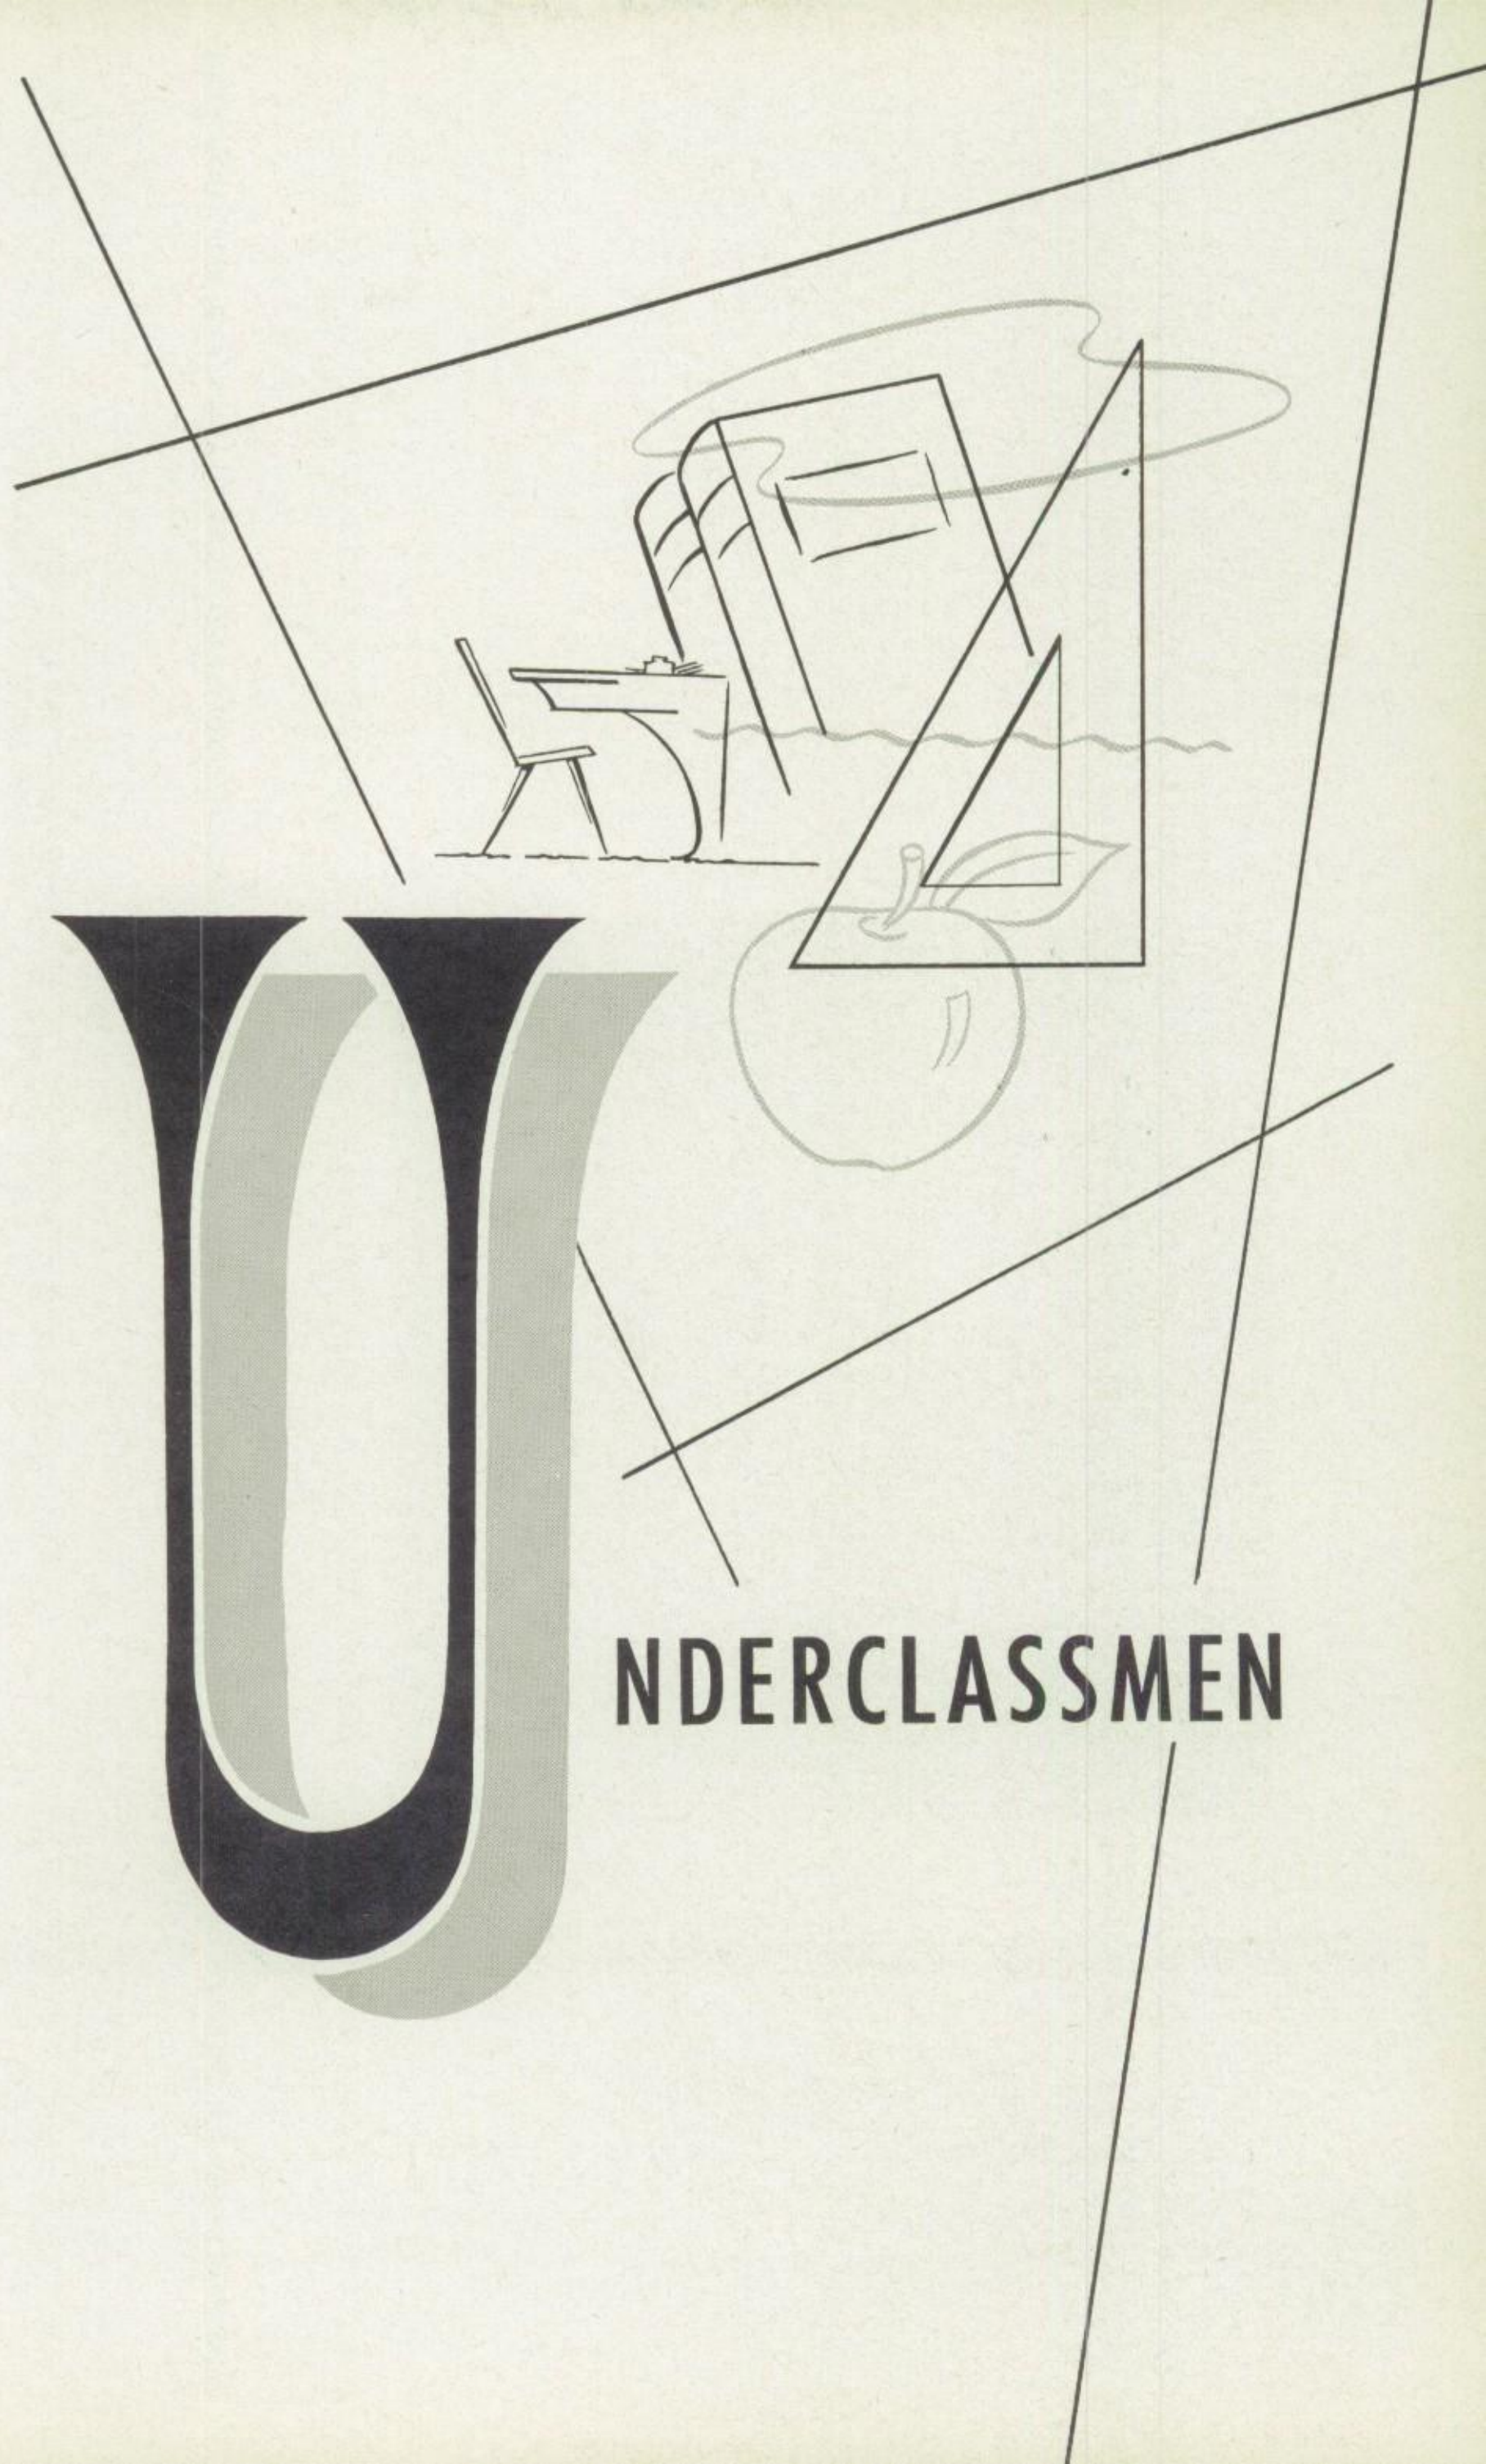

CLASS HISTORY

September, 1955, sixty-one "green" freshmen entered Arcola High with a will to be the best class ever. Although we were just as "green" as all the preceding Freshmen, we thought we were the "cream of the crop". But the upper-classmen soon taught us to think differently. Our freshman officers were Danny Strader, President, Art Beazley, Vice-President, Rosemary Soupis, Secretary-Treasurer, and Bob Waldron and Jo Elaine Hoots served as student council members. Our class advisors were Miss Newman and Mr. Dunn. We chose red and gold as our class colors. When Homecoming rolled around, we were all real excited, because it was our first real "big" dance. Our Homecoming float didn't win a prize but we enjoyed making it and getting out of study halls. We chose Bobbie Biggs as our Queen Attendant and Danny Strader as her escort. The semester exams gave us our big scare but we soon became familiar with them and settled down to studying. When May rolled around, we weren't quite as green and were looking forward to a busy Sophomore year.

With a gain of two and the loss of several, only fifty-five "silly" Sophomores entered A. H. S. in the fall of 1956. Our officers were Art Beazley, President, Shauna Powell, Vice-President, and Jim Binford, Secretary-Treasurer. Ed Hein and Carolyn Kluesner were chosen as student council members. Mr. Roberts and Mrs. Willmann were our class advisors. Our class colors were black and white and our flower was a rose. Bobbie Biggs was our Queen Attendant again and Ed Hein, her escort. Our Homecoming float won third prize which thrilled all of us. Because we were still under-classmen we had a few class projects but we were anxiously awaiting our Junior year when we would be upper-classmen.

There were only fifty "jolly" Juniors that returned to A. H. S. in 1957. Our class was slowly diminishing. Our officers that year were Jack Phillips, President, John Wood, Vice-President, Jim Binford, Secretary, and Bob Vyverberg, Treasurer. Ed Hein and Art Beazley were our student council representatives and Mr. Roberts and Miss Whitson were our class advisors. Our class rings, we thought, were the prettiest yet, but then all Juniors think that. Our Queen Attendant was Karen Morris and her escort was Bob Vyverberg. Our float with the slogan, "We'll Chop Down the Oaks", didn't win a prize. After the magazine sales and Okaw Tournament concessions, our treasury was full of hard earned money, which we spent on the Prom. The Junior-Senior Prom was held at Mattoon. Our Class Play, "Here Comes Charlie", was directed by Mildred Dennis and was a huge success.

Forty-three Seniors resumed their studies at Arcola High in September of 1958. The class officers were President Ed Hein, Vice-President Danny Strader, Secretary Bobbie Biggs, Treasurer John Wood. Our student council members were Art Beazley and Jim Binford. Miss Jokisch and Mr. Sitter were our class advisors. Danny Strader and Art Beazley were elected Co-captains of the football team and Bob Cox was elected captain of the basketball squad. Our Homecoming Queen was Bobbie Biggs and our Queen Attendant was Barbara Carroll. The Senior Class Play, "No Moon Tonight", directed by Miss Whitson, was as big a success as the Junior Play. Our biggest nights were Class Night, Prom, and our Graduation Dance. The Prom was held at the Burgess Auditorium in Mattoon and the Graduation Dance was held at the Country Club. Thus ended our four years at Arcola High from "green Freshmen" to "Sophisticated Seniors". It was a wonderful, fun-filled four years and we hope that the future classes of Arcola High have as much fun as we have had.

The background features several thin, intersecting black lines that create a sense of depth and perspective. In the upper right, there are faint line drawings: a desk with a chair, a rectangular box or structure, and a fruit (possibly an apple) with a leaf. These sketches are partially enclosed by geometric shapes like triangles and rectangles.

"NO MOON TONIGHT"
By Ralph MacDonald

Just for fun Ellen Terry fills out an application falsifying her father's qualifications as director of an important Chicago planetarium. Little sister, Susan, adds to and mails the application. Mr. Terry, amateur astronomer, winner of quiz programs, adsorbed in a book he is writing on astronomy, gets the job. To his amazement and that of the whole family, he keeps it; what is more they all live happily ever after with no more leaky roofs.

Activities for the Year

The F.H.A. theme this year has been "Be Wise--Economize" and the goal is to promote better family living. The programs for their meetings have been highlighted by a talk and demonstration about the use of cosmetics for teenagers by Mrs. Don Stump and ideas for gifts for different members of the family were suggested by Mrs. Nell Logan.

The F.H.A. supported no fund raising campaigns this year.

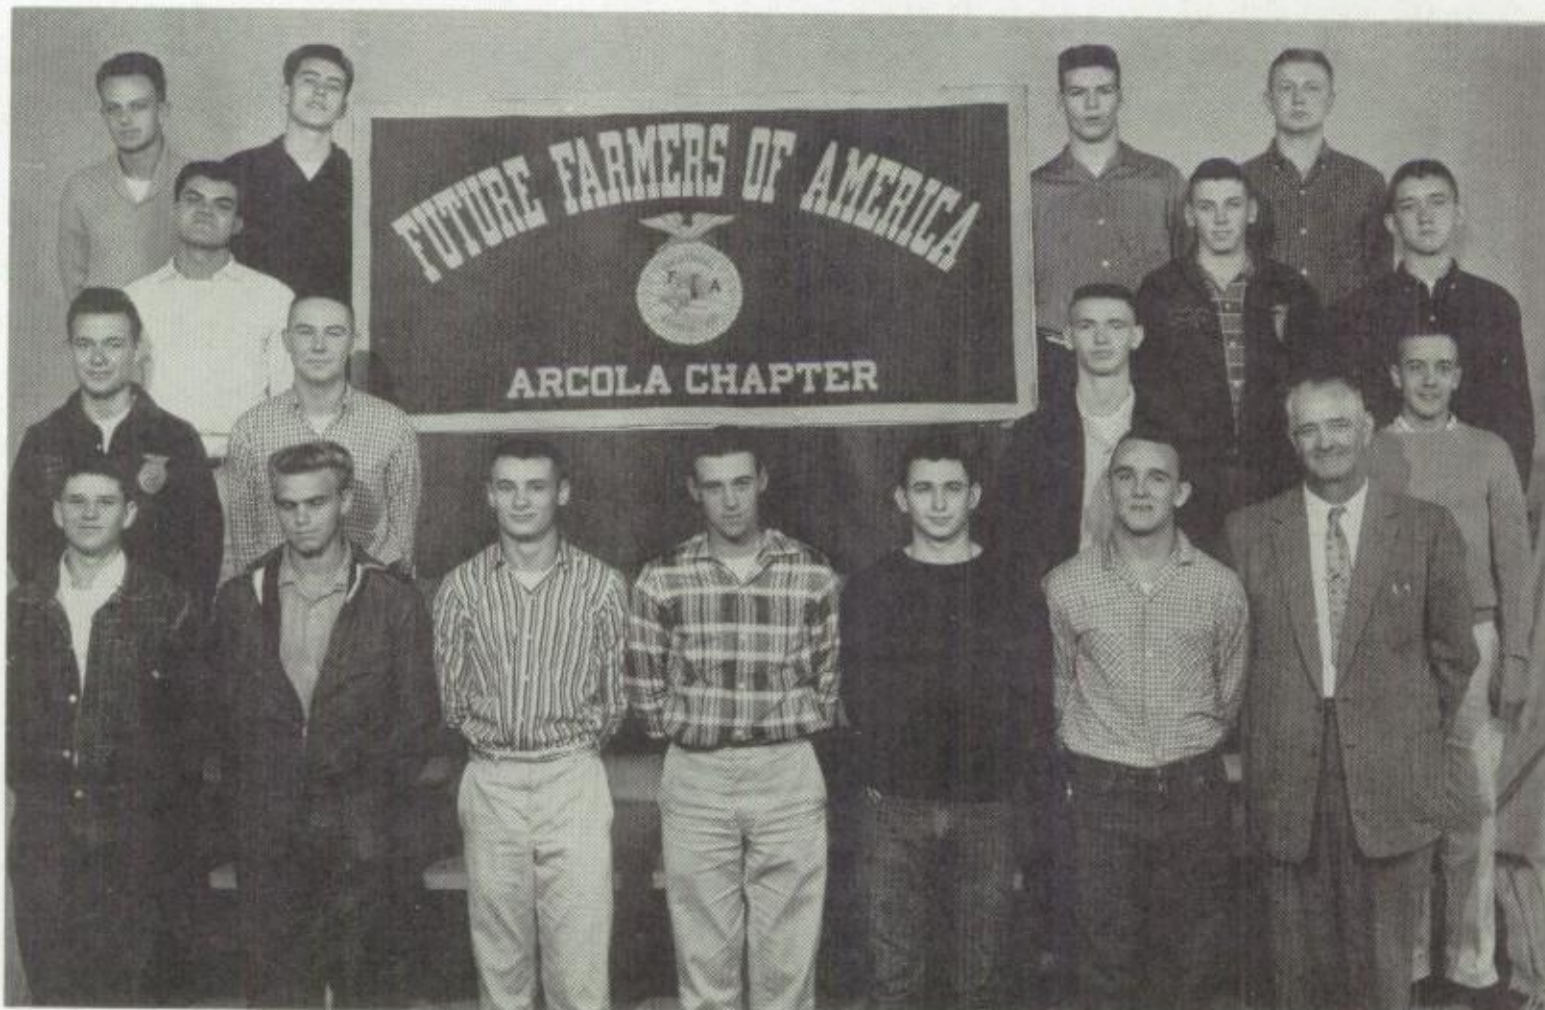

The year was climaxed by the annual Heart Sis Week, Christmas Tea, initiation of new members, and the installation of officers for '59-'60.

The Arcola FFA Chapter consists of thirty students who are or have been enrolled in Vo-Ag classes.

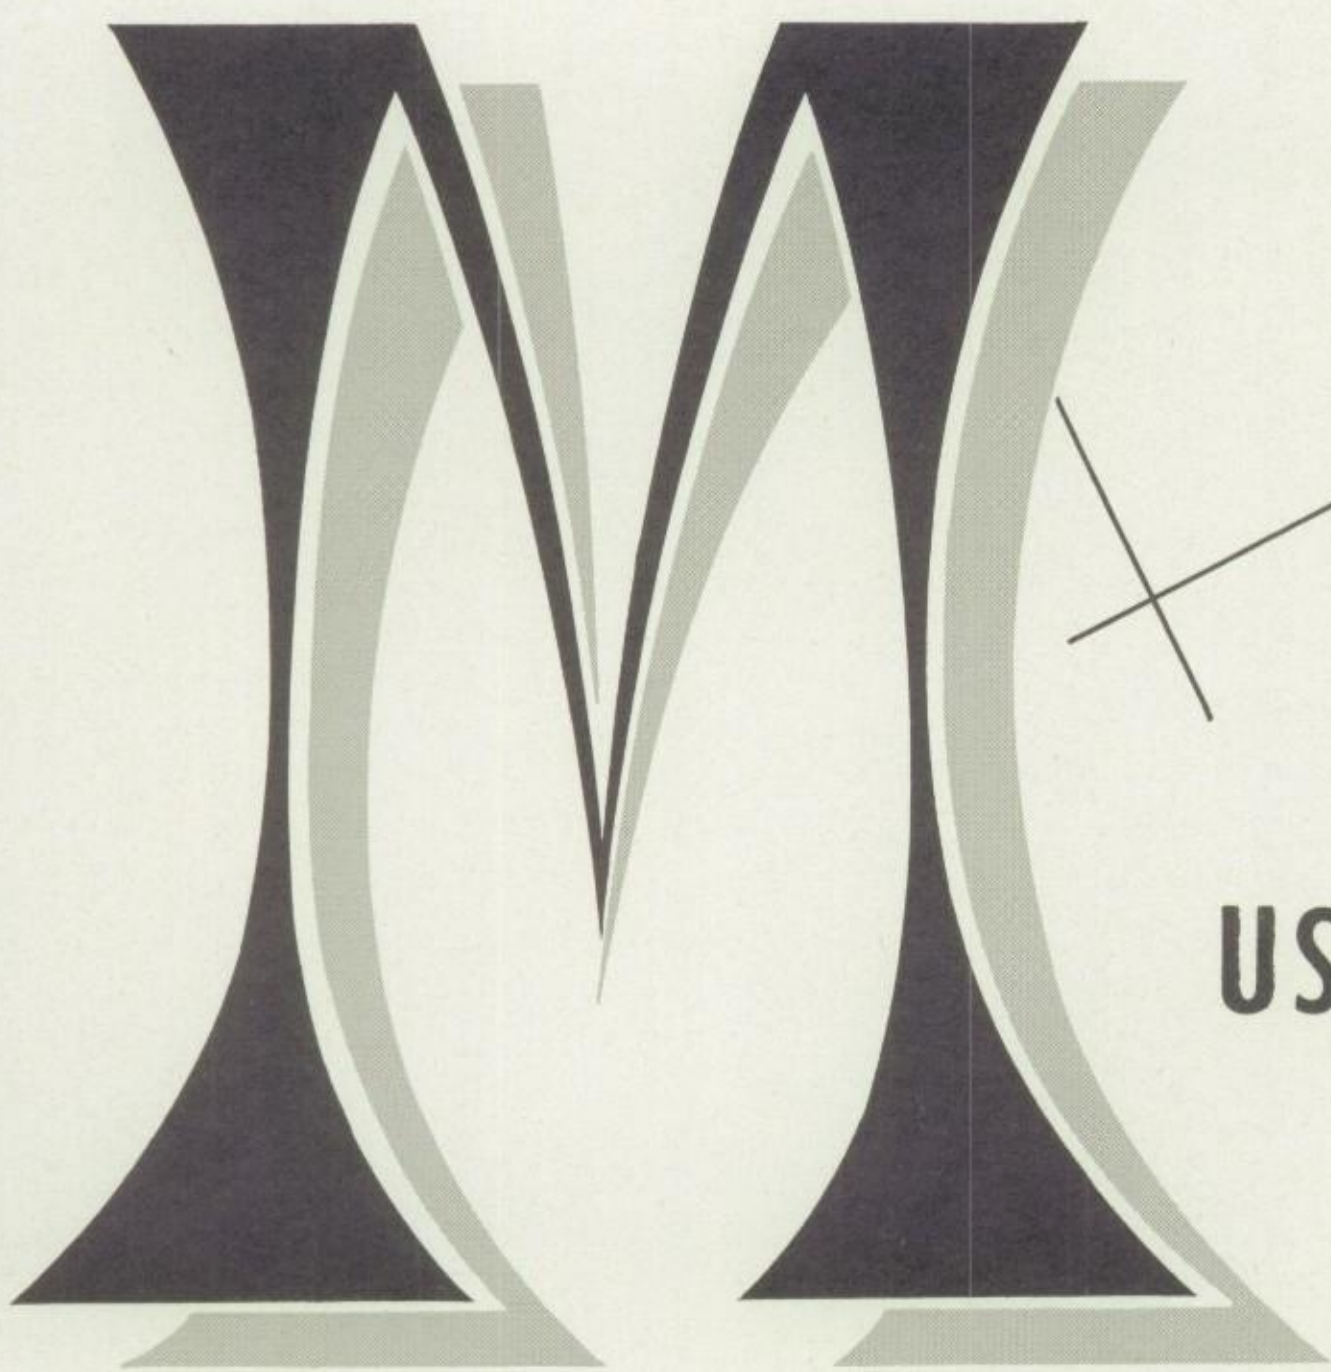

Business is transacted at their day meetings once each month. Recreation usually of a "rough and tough" nature takes place at the night sessions.

Some of the activities during the past school year were as follows:

1. Trip to International Livestock Show
2. Exhibiting projects at Sectional Fair at Fisher
3. Officers Training School at Tolono
4. Initiating six Green Hands
5. Awarding of ten Chapter Farmer Pins
6. Pest Eradication Contest and Barbeque
7. Parents and Son Banquet
8. Conducting Experiments on Dwarf Corn
9. Conducting yield Checks on Corn

It is the aim of the local FFA Chapter and Advisor to help develop worthy citizens that will be the Agricultural leaders of tomorrow.

BAND HISTORY

The Arcola High School Band began its season by marching during the half-times of the home football games. After football season, the band started practicing on concert music. A winter concert was given on February 8. On February 19, the band went to Villa Grove for the Annual Douglas County Band Festival. The District Solo and Ensemble Contest was held at Rossville and seven ensembles and nine soloists attended. Those receiving firsts will go to Jacksonville on April 17. If the band should receive a first on April 4, they will go to Jacksonville on April 18. On May 17, the band will hold a Spring Concert. To finish out the 1958-59 season, the band will march in the Memorial Day Parade.
